TO FANNY FERN.

Oh mirth provoking Fanny,

Pray tell me if you will;

And much I wonder, Fanny, If you an maid or wife ;

On the shady side of forty.

Or in the bloom of life.

If you are blonde or brunette.

If you are tarl and stately,

Or short and fut and dumpy, Or the two extremes bettween

I would like to ask the Editor.

He keeps your secret well;

Oh, there are many pictures

And call it Fanny Fern.

Is a being kind and true,

I have credited to you.

Oh mirth provoking Fanny,

If the genius of your pen

Can stir the heart of woman thus

How is it with the men?

Depend upon it, Fanny,

But I know he would not tell,

I have framed of you in furn, But the awcetest I have treasured up,

The ideal picture I have sketched,

And all that's good in womankind

With ringlets dark as night, Or soft and wavy tresses That flashes in the morning light

With the bearing of a queen,

What sort of a being you really are,

12 J. G. MAIER, P. M. Post Cffice Fort Wayne, Ind., April 221, 1853 The Celebrated Morgan Horse

I hereby certify that the Morgan Horse Young N me rod (or Hercules) that I have this day sold to Hodes & Hapgood, vas bred by Wm. Perkins, of Bakersic I; Vermont, and bought by me at two years old, and the have kept him since for the improvement of stock in the district of Montreal, Canada East. He was sind by Old Nimrod, now owned by Judge Sanith, of Benk shire, Vt. The dam of Nimrod stands unequalitied as a sire; his colts are large, of fine disposition, and last a sire; his colts are large, of fine disposition, and last goers, several of them having sold for troil two will be the largest of the Morgan race, weighing about for the pounds, is of great muscular power, kind and denote yet of sufficiently high mettle for a fast roadster I would with pleasure recommend him to those interests.

Young Nimrod was bred by Wm. Perkins, of Reco Pa or animal to get two successive premiums of the san class.

I will further add that I have been acquainted with the before named horse for the last six years, and that his stock has drawn more and better prizes than the stock of any other heige in our county, and perhalmore than the stock of all other horses together, and consider him the best Morgan horse in this section of country.

FOR SALE AT MANUFACTURERS' PRICES.

CEO. A PRINCE & CO.'S celebrated Melodeons are two most universally acknowledged to be the best instruments of the kind manufactured in this country. The many improvements they have made in this bithento inferior instrument, now make it one of the most desirable and useful articles of furniture that coube used in a family. In families, especially, where Sacred Music is taught or practiced, The whistling, whiring or squeaking tones these instruments used to possess, have now given place to a clear, pure, round tone, nearly resembling that of the "Fiute Stop" in the organ. Probably no musical instrument of any description ever made has met with so extensive and unproceedented a sale as the "Prince Melodeon."
